Spring Season 2018

15th - 20th January

The Cemetery Club

Ivan Menchell

In this wonderful play, full of New York Jewish humour, Ivan Menchell takes us on a trip through the poignant memories of Ida, Lucille and Doris who meet once a month for tea before going to visit their husbands' graves.

12th - 17th February

The Edge of Darkness

Brian Clemens

Emma went missing years ago. Max and Laura Cranwell claim her as their daughter but who is she? Emma tries to piece her life back together but there are many questions to be answered.

19th - 24th March

Charlie's Trousers

Alan Plater

It is nearly midnight in a Tyneside art gallery and all should be peaceful and quiet. The security guard, Kev, is surprised when he finds his old friend, Nev, in the gallery and there is something mysterious about the large packing case that was recently delivered. What follows is a play full of wit, local references and fun.

23rd - 28th April

The Railway Children

Mike Kenny adapted from E Nesbit

The heart-warming story of the Waterbury children who have to face up to a huge upheaval in their lives when their father is taken away from the family. This faithful adaptation of the novel will be loved by adults and children alike. A true family favourite.

11th - 16th June

No Dinner For Sinners

Edward Taylor

Jim Watt runs the London office of a stock exchange firm and lives with his girlfriend Helen. No problem you would think. However Jim's boss and his wife are coming for dinner and don't approve of unmarried couples living together. Chaos ensues as Jim tries to save face and solve the problem of finding a wife.

BECOME A MEMBER

Autumn Season Preview

16th - 21st July

Go Back For Murder

Agatha Christie

Carla has received a message from beyond the grave suggesting that her mother, who died in prison after being found guilty of killing her husband, was wrongly convicted. She sets out to clear her mother's name by bringing together all those present on the day of her father's death to relive what happened.

3rd - 8th September

Revenge

Robin Hawdon

Bill Crayshaw MP is a man of great wealth and influence. One evening an attractive woman arrives at his door questioning how he acquired such a position, but is she all that she seems? This exciting drama will lead you along a winding path of intrigue and deception. This amateur production is presented by arrangement with Josef Weinberger Limited.
